Submission of entries

13. About 8 weeks before the closing date you will receive a letter announcing the competition. The letter will refer you to the L&CPU website so that you can download the rules and procedures and the spreadsheet for entries. You will also be asked to write or email the Competitions Secretary to say how many print labels you will require. These will be posted to you as soon as they are available. A template will be available on the website to be downloaded so that you can print your own labels
- 13.1 The website will also include information on entry submission and the names of persons who have agreed to accept all entries around the region. YOU MUST RECLAIM THEM FROM THE SAME PERSON AFTER THE COMPETITION.
The L&CPU will not accept any responsibility for entries left with any person not included on the list.
Contact details are available in the L&CPU directory

NB. Prints which are not being retained will only be available when the slides are ready for collection.

14. Entries must be submitted through the club using the spreadsheet which can be downloaded from the L&CPU website. A hard copy should also be sent with the actual entries.

The Club is responsible for ensuring that,

- a) The spreadsheet is correctly filled in.
- b) These rules are complied with,
- c) All entry data is emailed to the address given on the L&CPU website.

15. Photographers entitled to use photographic distinctions should state these.
16. Each medium should be packed separately and in section order. All packages should be clearly marked with the club name (NOT INITIALS) and the name and address of the person to whom it should be returned. Please do not use adhesive tape or staples or makeshift packing. If you wish your entry to be returned by post send address labels and postage with your entry form.
Digital entry cd's will be destroyed after the competition.

Miscellaneous information

17. Clubs winning trophies (not medals) will be responsible for their safe keeping within the UK and their safe return to the L&CPU Competition Secretary by the closing date of the next annual competition.
18. Photographers who are also members of another Federation can declare their work invalid for selection for the PAGB Inter-Federation Print and Slide Competitions by requesting a Declaration form from the L&CPU Competition Secretary. Such a form must stipulate which items of work are invalid and which Federation the entrant is allowing to use their work. This will not apply to the Folio selection.
19. Whilst every care is taken with entries and Folios no responsibility can be accepted by the Lancashire and Cheshire Photographic Union for any loss or damage that may occur.

Sponsorship

20. Any monetary awards gained through sponsorship of the annual competitions will be awarded to winning clubs only. No monetary awards will be awarded to individuals.

Notification of results

21. A PDF file of the results will be emailed to Clubs who have provided email addresses and will also be published on the L&CPU web site www.lcpu.org.uk as soon as possible after the judging day. Results will not be posted back separately.

Retained entries

22. The L&CPU may retain prints, slides and Digital Images from the competition for the following:
 - a) The L&CPU Folios.
 - b) The PAGB Annual Inter-Federation Competitions.

The L&CPU folios

23. Prints retained for the folios will be returned after the Annual Competition of the following year.

Slides retained for the folios will be copied following the competition and the originals returned to the club as quickly as possible.

Digital images may be used for a Digital Folio.

Folios may also be circulated in the form of low resolution images on CD.

The PAGB inter-federation competitions

24. Prints and Digital Images are selected from the entries in the Annual Competition.

PRINTS selected are returned to the L&CPU after the PAGB competition but may be retained by the L&CPU to form part of the following year's folio, and Exhibition.

Digital Images that are selected for the PAGB are left for the PAGB to destroy after use.

Presentation of awards

25. Each club secretary will be notified by post, or via e-mail if supplied, of the date and venue of the presentation of any awards gained by the club or its members in the Annual Competitions. This will include a form, which must be returned via post or email to the L&CPU Competition Secretary by the due date and must indicate who will or will not be attending the Presentation of Awards. There will be no presentation of awards by proxy.

If there is no representative from the club to receive the club award, or the member is not present to receive his or her individual award, then those awards will only be notified in the catalogue, and the Trophy, Medal, and/or Certificate will be sent by post or some other method to the club secretary.
