

Wilmslow Guild Photographic Society

Press Release
13 January 2011

It's all go for the Wilmslow Guild Photographers and it's only January!

What a great start to 2011! Hard on the heels of their previous two wins for Sport and Action and Macro, the Wilmslow Guild Photographic Society (WGPS) again have reason to celebrate, coming 2nd in the final round of the Digital SLR User Magazine competition - Architecture. The scores for these images were added to the other 8 rounds, giving WGPS 11th place overall out of a total of 63 national clubs.

The Architecture images submitted were (left to right): Lincoln Memorial by Dave Griffiths, London Bridge by Jonathan Rew-Dixon and Stoke Station, again by Dave Griffiths.

The WGPS Committee are also now busy organising a 2nd Open Morning which is being held at The Guild, 1 Bourne Street, Wilmslow on Saturday 29th January 2011 from 1030am – 12pm. All levels of experience are welcome and Members will be available to provide advice on topics such as photography composition or even just how to understand your camera manual and you can also try your hand at taking hi-key portraits using the studio lights. To register your place, just email wgps@hotmail.co.uk

Here's the winner of the previous Open Morning competition, local resident John Mills receiving his 1st place prize from Gary Schultz, WGPS Chairman.

The January edition of Cheshire Life also features a profile on the history and activities of club and a new selection of Members' images are now on display at Total Fitness in Wilmslow.

The activities of WGPS don't end there. "A new year brings a new season of inter-club competitions", explains Jonathan Rew-Dixon, External Competitions Secretary. "WGPS are soon to be competing against Frodsham and there's also a tri-way with Macclesfield and Hale and Altrincham camera clubs. Let's hope our entries are strong and we continue building on our success from 2010 into 2011".

Wilmslow Guild Photographic Society is for everyone who enjoys taking photographs, whether in digital or traditional film formats, from beginner to expert. New members are always welcome to join - meetings are held on Wednesday evenings at 7.30pm at The Guild, 1 Bourne Street, Wilmslow. Full details of the 2010-2011 Programme are available on the Society's website at www.wgps.org.uk.

These and other images from Members of WGPS are available to view via the Facebook group "Wilmslow Guild Photographic Society" and WGPS can be followed on Twitter id wgpsorguk.
